

KC's Hounds & Houndsmen

2015 Northeastern Big Game Trials

Press Release

For immediate release

February 6, 2015

Matt McDonnell and KC's Hound's & Houndsmen are pleased to announce the 2nd annual Northeastern Big Game Trials to be hosted by the Washington County Coon and Cat Club, 482 Quarry Rd in Salem, New York on May 16, 2015. With the overwhelming success of the 2014 event and 247 event registrations, we are expecting even bigger results for 2015! Some of the country's leading bear hounds and handlers will be competing along with individuals and teams from throughout the Northeast and Canada !

This years event s will include field trials , water races , and features the "bay competition" as the premier event.

Salem, New York, located one hour north of Albany is nestled conveniently between the Adirondack Mountains of New York and the Green Mountain National Forrest of Vermont. If you are a professional hunter, and avid enthusiast or out for a family trials competition and vacation, the area offers tremendous value.

Sponsors and contributors, its time to make your plans to join us as a premier sponsor or contributor to the 2nd Annual Northeastern Big Game Trials. With your sponsorship or donation you will receive prime promotional coverage throughout our advertising materials including; print, KC's Hounds & Houndsmen website with 800,000 hits per month and Bear Hunters Online Magazine. Call us today for details!

"Your sponsorship and generous donations assist us in maintaining the strong heritage of hound hunting and afford us the opportunity to promote the sport to our youth and juniors program!"

Thank you!

Matt
